For the fifth year the staff of the yearbook proudly presents the "Eyrie." Piloted by the journalism class with staff members drawn from the entire school, the yearbook is pointed up to the members of the senior class who will leave this year to "step ahead" along broader highways.

In the process of organizing, compiling and presenting this book, we have come to understand that the learning process does not only include the knowledge to be gained from textbooks. It means the individual learning, but broadly it means teamwork, the bending of wills for the rights of others, the co-operation for the completion of a project.

An overwhelming "thank you" is given to Margret Y. Willis for the counsel, information, patience and beneficial guidance she has given the Eyrie staff.

Dedication

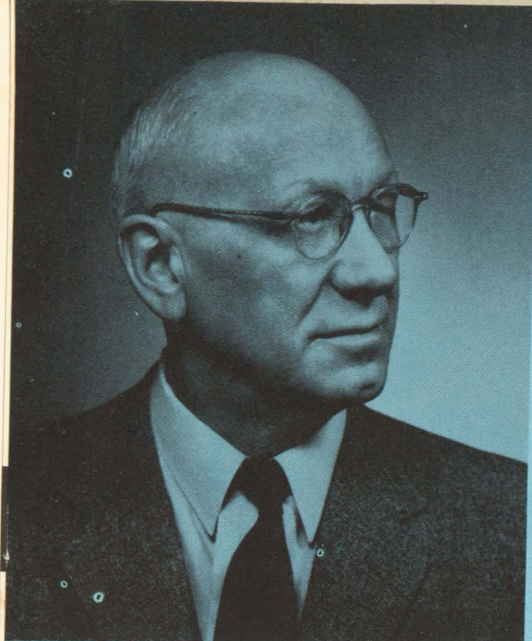

To Margret Y. Willis, who has given her students an invaluable education in the fields of English, art, and journalism, we gratefully dedicate the 1962 Eyrie.

In addition to serving the community of Vassar for twenty years as owner and publisher of the newspaper, she also brought to Frankenmuth experience from the daily newspaper field, the tourist association information bureau and an active interest in politics -- all of which helps our students "to step ahead."

*To my special students
my very best wishes
Sincerely
Margaret Willis*

Mrs. Willis received her Bachelor of Science degree from Eastern Michigan University and began teaching at Frankenmuth High School when the first class graduated in 1957.

During the six years she has been teaching here, Mrs. Willis has begun and served as advisor to the Eagle Echo, a bi-weekly newspaper published by the journalism class and the Eyrie, the Frankenmuth High School yearbook.

Lorenz List, treasurer, is the senior member of an unbroken thirty-six years. Mr. List is prominent in the city of Frankenmuth and president of the local bank.

Board Of Education

"We step ahead" --- with an understanding Board of Education. Every school necessitates a governing body to decide the policies of the institution. This group which guides the destinies of the Frankenmuth School District is the seven member board.

These men come from various fields of endeavor to serve, to put their ideas together for the growth of a solid, well-rounded school program. The present program has been designed to allow each student to use his potential to the fullest.

Under the guidance of this forward looking board, the school has pioneered in the field of televised teaching, introduced the extern program in co-operation with one of the state's universities, new ideas have been added, the best have been kept and others have been discarded.

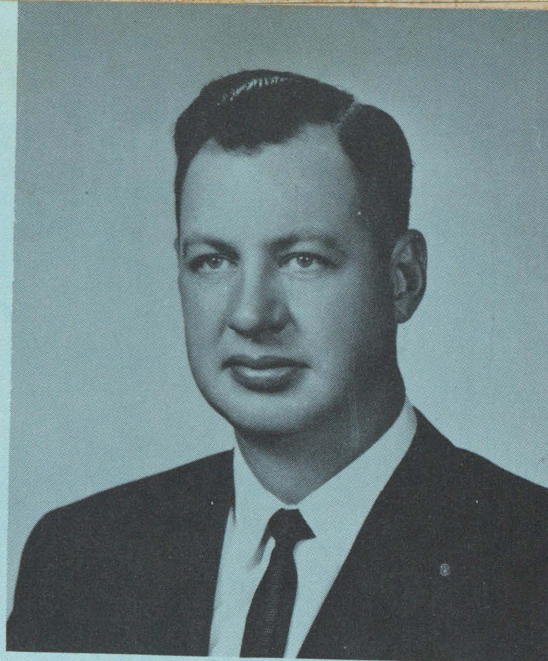

We have grown, due to the type of men piloting the destinies of this school.

Julius Yoba has faithfully served this community for twelve years as a member of the board. He was active during the years the high school was being planned and built. He operates a farm in the rural area of the school district.

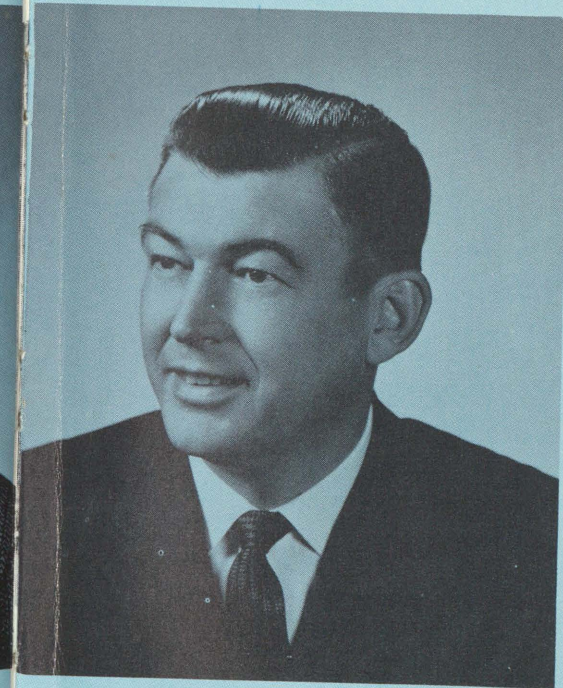

T. W. Johnston, a six-year member of the pilot group, brings to the board his broad business knowledge. He is the well-known owner of the local IGA store.

Walter Frahm, president, two-year member of the school board is no newcomer to school problems. He has served the school as president of the local PTA group and has been an active member of that board for several years. He owns and operates a well-known dairy farm north of the city.

E. F. Rittmueller, secretary, has had the experience of working with school children, having been a teacher for forty-seven years before his retirement in 1961. He has served on the board for one year.

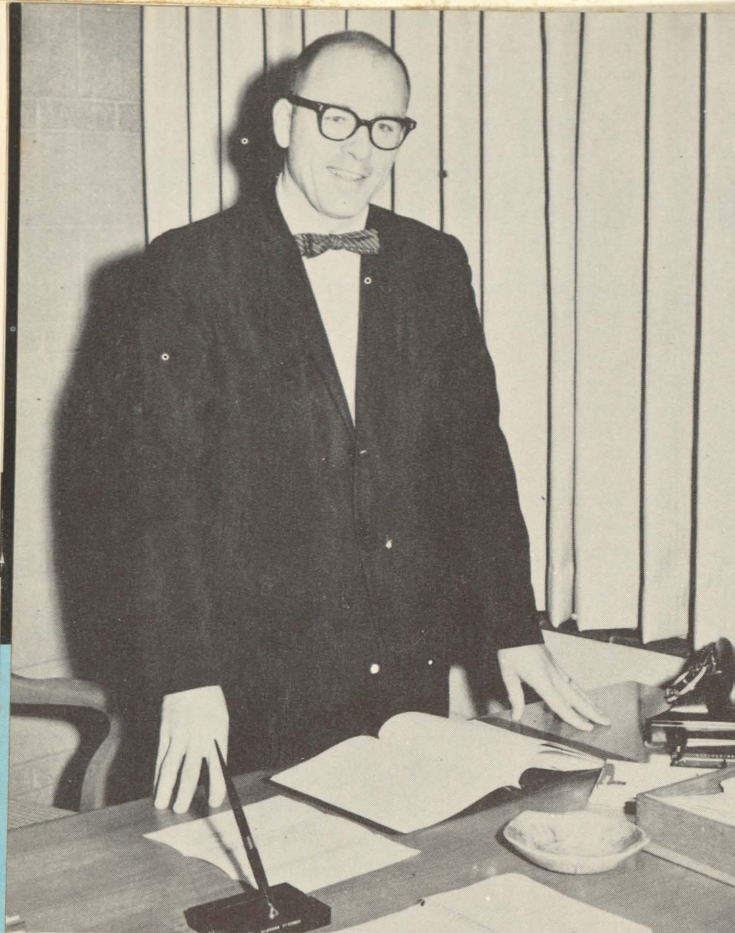

Raymond Bauer is the newest member of the board, serving his first year. Mr. Bauer, like several other board members, is a businessman.

Wyman Heganauer is one of the newer members having been elected two years ago. Mr. Heganauer successfully operates a farm in Gera in addition to serving as sales manager of Star of the West Milling Company.

Administration

Serving his second year as the head of Frankenmuth District School is Richard Ziehmer, superintendent. A graduate of the Pontiac High School, he served in the army; upon his return to civilian life he entered Eastern Michigan University, graduating in 1953 with a Bachelor of Science degree. In 1959 he obtained his Masters degree from the University of Michigan. At the present time he is doing additional graduate work through the University of Michigan.

Coming to Frankenmuth in 1958 with four years of teaching experience in Michigan he served as English teacher and debate and forensics coach for one year, was appointed high school principal in 1959 and in 1960 assumed the duties of superintendent.

Following his graduation from Central Michigan College, Robert Wallen served as mathematics and shop teacher in Frankenmuth until 1953 when he became principal of the high school. He continued to serve until 1958 when he resigned effective in June of that year. He entered the University of Michigan to continue advance graduate study having completed his masters degree from this school in 1953.

In 1960 he returned to Frankenmuth as principal and has served in this capacity since that time.

Elementary Administration

Serving as principal of the Frankenmuth District Elementary School since 1956, James Vitany plans to return for the 1962-1963 school year. Teaching sixth grade one-half day as well as administrator constitutes Mr. Vitany's duties.

Mr. Vitany earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1949 when he graduated from Central Michigan University. Later in 1954 he received his Master's degree from the University of Michigan.

Guidance And Counselling

In charge of the guidance and counselling program at Frankenmuth are Homer Stinchcombe and Mrs. Helena Kaczynski. Mr. Stinchcombe heads the guidance and testing program and Mrs. Kaczynski works in a part time capacity. Both are graduates of Central Michigan University with Masters degrees from the University of Michigan.

Secretaries

Mrs. Charlotte Worley acts as the secretary and stablizer for the hectic office of Robert Wallen, principal. In addition to her secretarial duties, she assists needy members of the student body.

The quieter office of Richard Ziehmer, superintendent, is run by Mrs. Lawrence Lee and Sharon Krueger, a senior working through the school co-op program. Not pictured is Joan Maier, who joined the staff during the second semester.

These five girls assist Mrs. Worley for one hour each day. Surrounding Diane Fisher are: Cheryl Geyer, Beverly Mitchell, Anne Bierlein and Pat McInerney.

Mimi Janson, another senior on the co-op program, works in the office of James Vitany, principal of the public elementary school, as his part time secretary.

Custodians

Those who keep the school neat are: Alois Schmitzer, head custodian, Mrs. Alois Schmitzer, William Gallagher, Kurt Schmitzer, Ronald Palmrueter. NOT PICTURED: Kathryn Suppes. This staff is assisted by two students, Walter Rogner, and Gerald Palmrueter, both juniors.

Hot Lunch

Planning and preparing for over 600 students each day is the task of these skilled cooks: Mrs. Ada Loesel, Mrs. Dorothy McMahon, Mrs. Helen Block, Mrs. Leona Weber, Mrs. Paul Willard, Mrs. Christine Rummel, Mrs. Meta Kueffner.

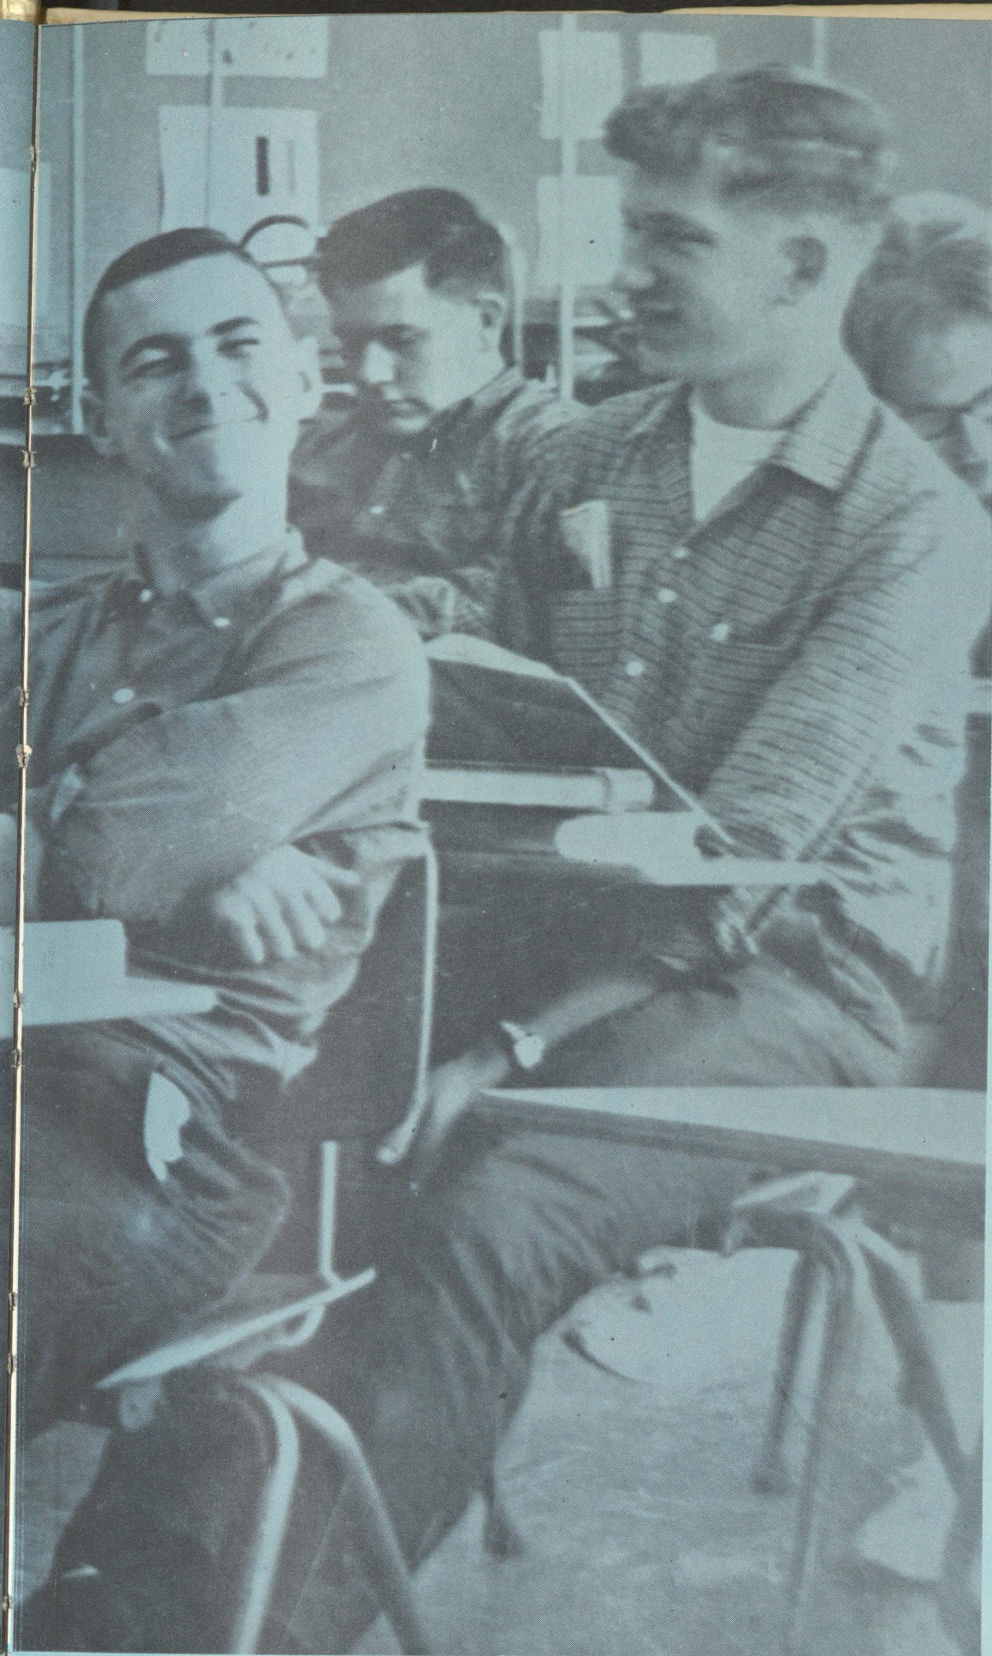

Transportation

The following drive the busses daily: Ed Zehnder, Martin Gehrs, Rev. Arthur Terwilliger, Alvin Richert, Warren Naber, Art Hildner, in charge. KNEELING: Kurt Schmitzer, Mrs. John Katona, Mrs. Ben Trinklein, Jr., Louis Weiss. ABSENT: Mrs. Sylvia Bickel, Fred Janni, Fritz Pursche, Ben Trinklein.

CLASS ACTIVITIES

Classroom work is usually a pretty serious affair for seniors, but occasionally a bit of fun needs to be injected into the classroom. Eldon Geyer, foreground, adds his bit for the day. Other students are Pauline Frank, Lanny Nuechterlein, Fred Meyer, Terry Heine, Dan Creger and Charlotte Schiefer.

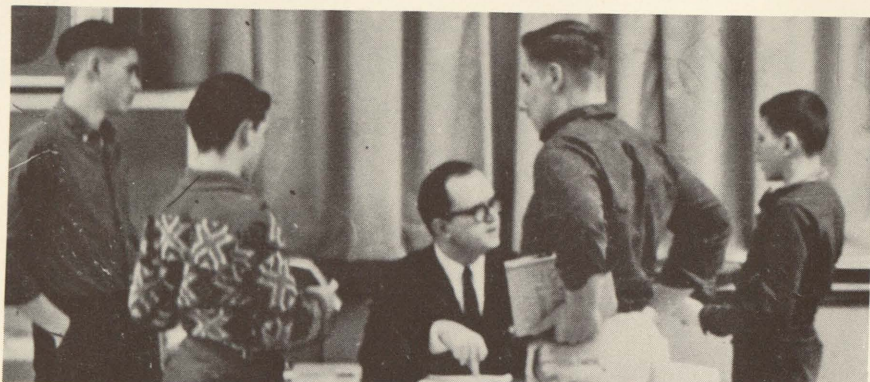

English

Required for graduation from the Frankenmuth High School are four years of English. The first two years are devoted to a greater degree to the technical or grammatical side of English Literature. American and English are stressed during the last two years.

These four masters of the English language are responsible for the teaching of that subject. STANDING: Patrick McCartney, freshman; William Nolan, sophomore, junior, senior. SEATED: Mrs. Lois Bartz, junior; Mrs. Margret Y. Willis, senior.

Discussing an English term are freshmen Ken Spencer, Clemens Robinson, Patrick McCartney, instructor; Roland Weiss, Ted Galsterer.

Social Studies

Social studies teachers include, STANDING: August Kehrberg and Miss Ruth Ann Sweeney, history, government; Charles Bartel, Jr., history. SEATED: Alfred Zink and Patrick McCartney, history, government.

Joe Chowanec adjusts one of the three television sets during a junior American history class.

Science and Mathematics

STANDING: Wayne Seiffert, Algebra I and Richard Haffner, Physics. SEATED: Walter Bartz, Algebra II and Charles T. Dorsey, Chemistry.

Foreign Languages

One wonders just how Mr. and Mrs. Bartz converse. In Frankenmuth High School each one teaches a foreign language, German and Spanish respectively. They are both graduates of the University of Michigan.

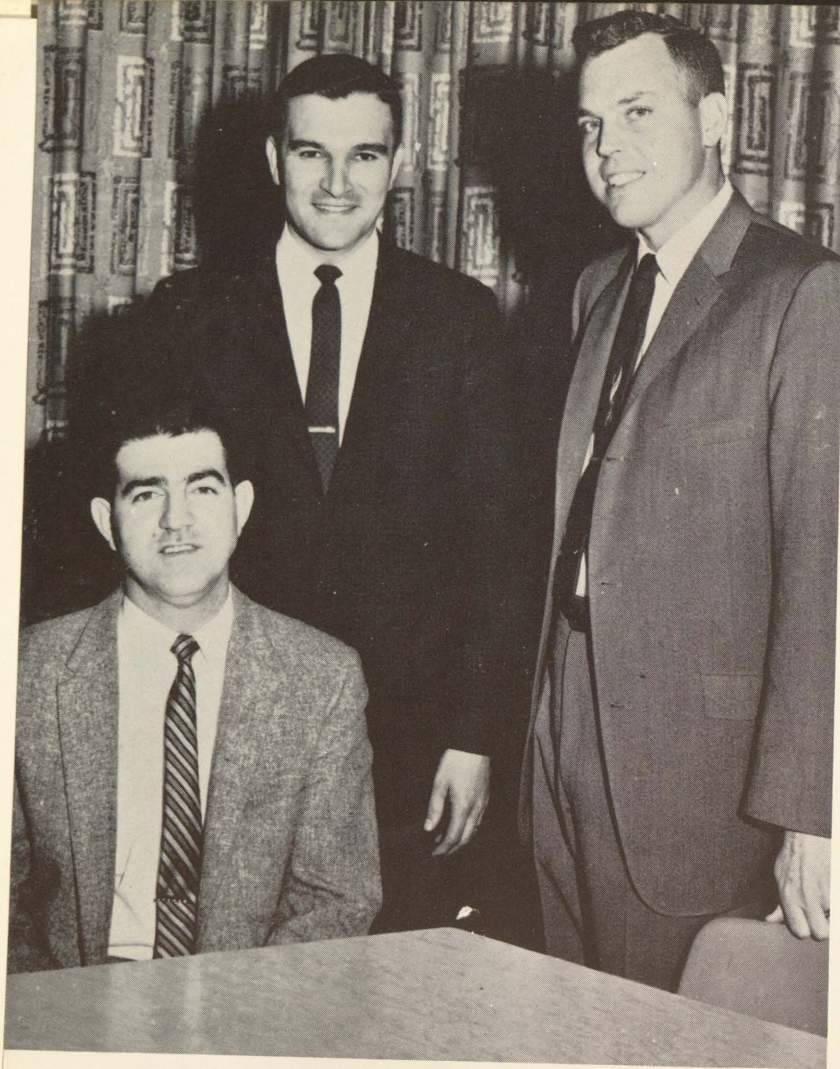

Due to lack of demand the Spanish class will be dropped from the curriculum of foreign languages at the close of this year. More emphasis will be evidenced in German with the addition of an advanced class.

Habla Ud. El español? First and second year Spanish has been taught by Mrs. Walter Bartz. Students who have taken the full two years have enjoyed the class.

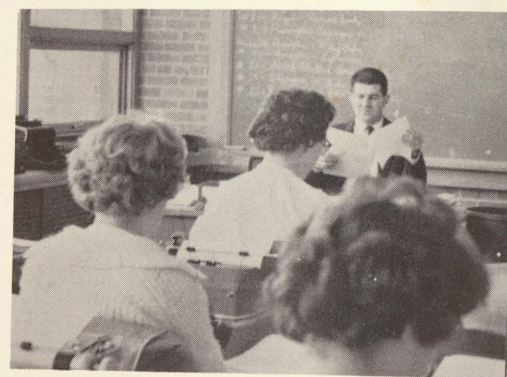

Those strange guttural sounds which issue from behind the closed door of room 6 are but the distinguishing sounds of one of the German classes held there. Head of the department, and teacher is the one and only Walter Bartz. Sag's auf Deutsch!

Commercial Studies

Mr. Marcet is busily correcting the typing papers of his first year students.

Reviewing old grades with Mr. Bartel is Ronald Loesel with Roger Kroeger looking on attentively.

Mr. Weiss, like the rest of his typing students is busily at work.

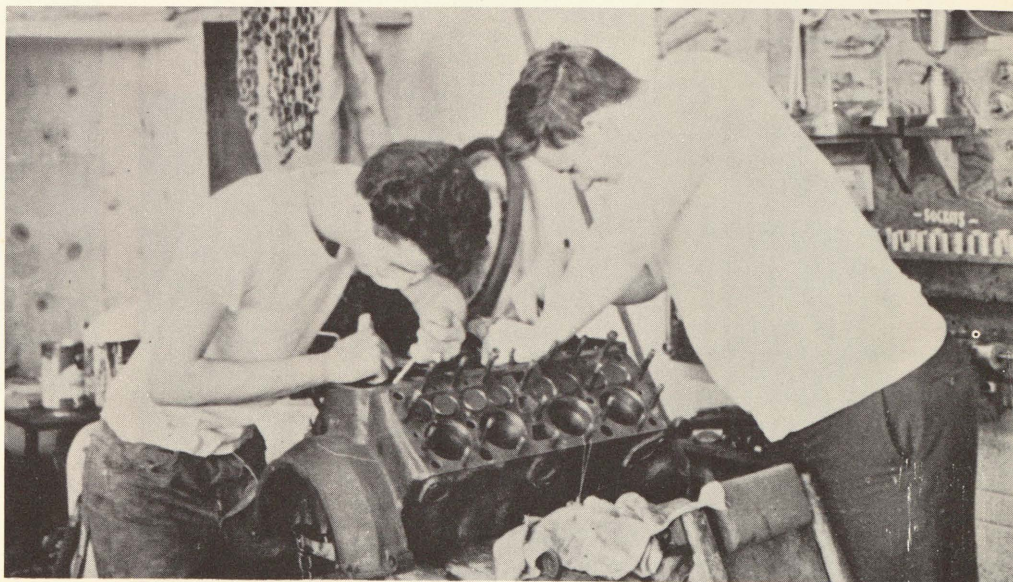

Industrial Arts

Problems! Problems! Concentrating on their mechanical drawings are Millard Leslie, left, and Rudolph Frank.

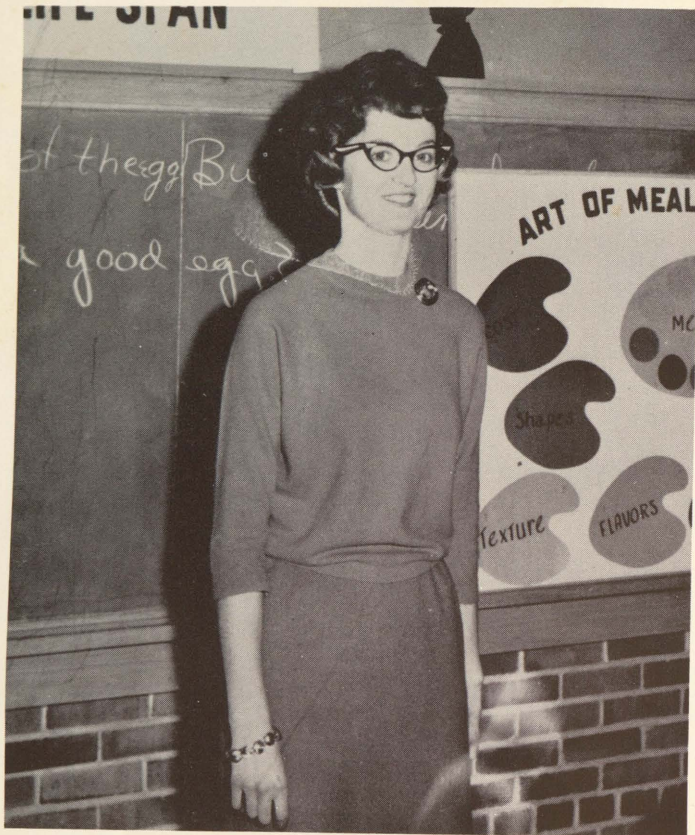

Warren Naber poses among the machinery in the shop classroom. He is the instructor of the shop, auto mechanics, and mechanical drawing classes.

Absorbed in the rewarding task of repairing an engine Mike Dietrich, left, and Terry Heine, learn of auto mechanics by applying what they learn.

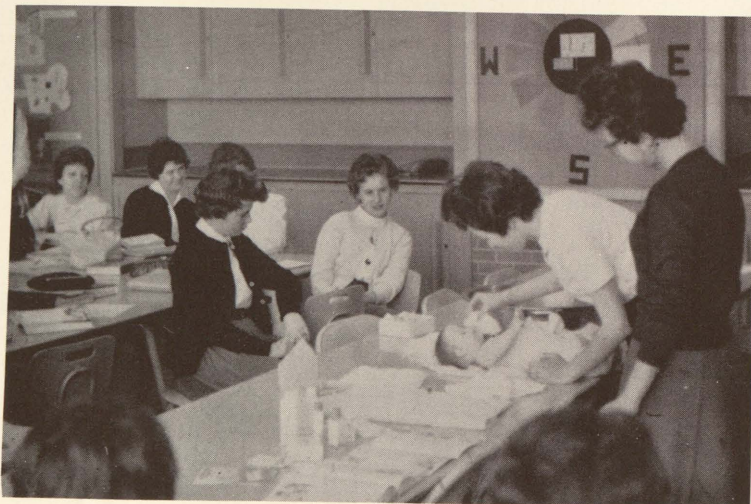

Homemaking

Art Department

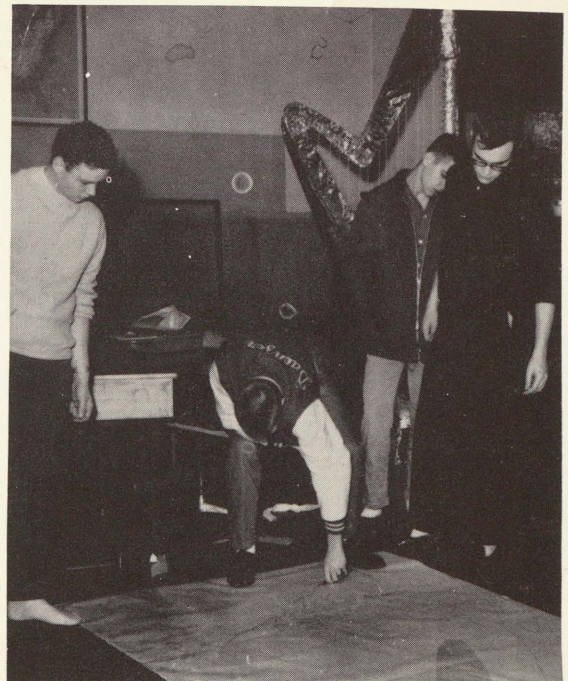

Art students have the experience of working with their hands. These pupils are, TOP TO BOTTOM: Roberta Engel, Jerry Daenzer, Patricia McInerney, Ruth Hubinger, Rhea Fischer. Opposite them are Marilyn Lash, Judy Hoerauf, Rita List, and Sharon Eaton.

Constantly on call for the making of decorations, posters, and programs are the students of the art classes. Pictured left are Don Techentien, Jerry Daenzer, Carl Hoppe and Jerry Freeman all intent on doing the decorations for the Christmas holiday. While decorations were made in the art department they were sponsored by the student council.

Mrs. Margret Y. Willis, art instructor, has taught the techniques and processes of art for six years. Under discussion is "torn paper" work in three dimension. Short units in crafts are included in the program.

Journalism

Looking for a descriptive word? Well, possibly the best one to describe this particular course and work laboratory is fascinating. Time spent in the classroom flies by, the air hums with talk of deadlines, advertising, make-up, cuts, heads, pix, etc., etc.

It is truly a challenge to write for and publish a newspaper, and journalism students meet it with determination, efficiency, and vitality which could come only through love of the work they are doing.

Dennis Recla, chief photographer, took many of the Eyrie pictures and is shown in the darkroom of the Communications Arts Building. Dennis also takes the pictures for the Eagle Echo, the school newspaper.

Physical Education

Mrs. Helena Kaczynski and her husband Coach Harry Kaczynski are in control of the athletic and physical education departments.

In the background, Coach Kaczynski, Eugene Schiefer, and Larry Palmrueter, watch the boxing efforts of Myles Willard and John Rivett.

A typical warm-up exercise in one of the girls' physical education classes shows, in the first two rows, Virginia Hetzner, Etta Kelly, Karen Laux, on the other side of the net, Dorothy Gugel and Mildred Haas.

Band and Music

A portion of the band members are shown providing half-time entertainment during a basketball game under the able direction of James Van De Velde, in this instance assisted by Debby Haffner. Debby is the musically talented child of Richard Haffner, mathematics and science instructor.

Miss Judith Cornett, a graduate of Central Michigan University, is spending her first year in Frankenmuth High School as librarian.

Library

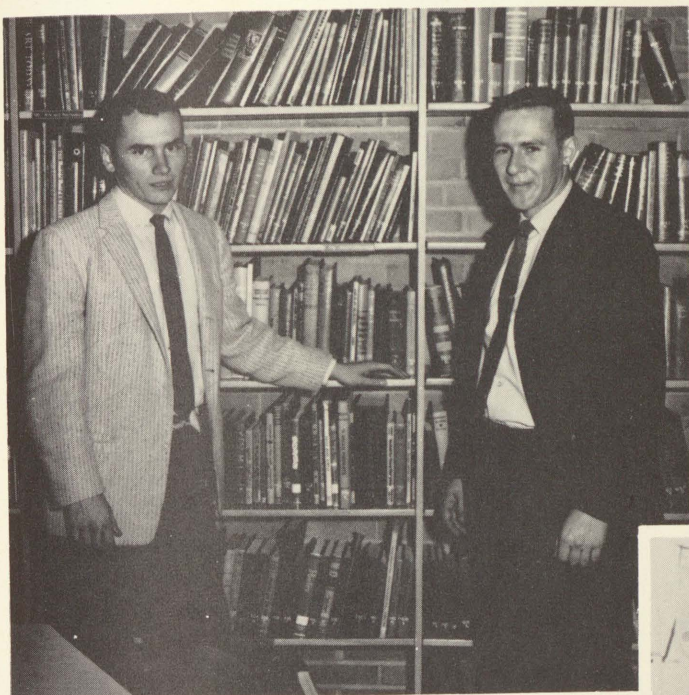

Term Papers! Sources of 5,000 books are available to any person who wishes to locate them and dig out the material. Each year since the library opened in the winter of 1957, books have been added to the collection, for reference, for classical reading, for non-fiction, for fiction. The Board of Education may be faced with the need to add more shelves.

At right are six of the seven assistant librarians who work with Miss Cornett; Chris Schomaker, Nancy Matzke, Charlotte Rivett, Karen Zehnder, Judy Mueller, and Lucille Schiefer. ABSENT: Pat Adams.

Student Teachers

Daniel Smith, left, taught advanced algebra and mathematics, while David Lowe spent his term teaching in the social science field.

The "two Miss Steeles," Anna and Vera served in the mathematics and commercial fields, respectively.

SENIORS

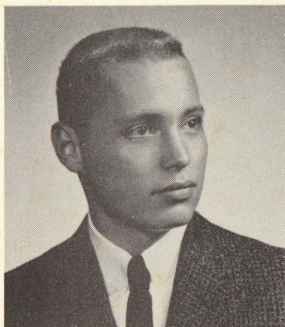

Yes, there are girls in the senior class! It so happened this group of senior boys gathered together in the corner of the art-journalism room to go over each and every page on the day the new book arrived. They were juniors in 1961, but played an important role in the activities of the year, they are, LEFT TO RIGHT: Kenneth (Ken) Jammer, Gerald (Jerry) Daenzer. We spent four years in Frankenmuth High School and as graduating seniors these few words imply all of the things that this school means to each one of us.

Whether we remember the long hours spent in trying to plumb the depths of the various textbooks, or the night all of the students wore their best to attend the prom. The memories will be poignant and here and there will be scattered regrets.

Scenes from all parts of the school will come crowding back --- a remembered glance across the field and gully from the library window --- a splash of a runner in red out for track, even as the snow banks last --- the girls crossing the field for archery --- the football squad and the cheerleaders --- the homecoming queen and the myraid of other scenes will crowd back as "we step ahead" on the quest of an enriched future.

Lodged in the memory of every graduate is a host of images which have come from the pattern of experiences of life shared. Memories, the pleasant ones, of teachers who added their bit to the growth of students --- friends who have shared our fun and lives will all become meaningful to the inquiring mind.

Now the four fullest years of our experiences draws to a close and in the future will become a misty multitude of memories.

The junior class, seventy-nine members, ran out of air and had to incorporate air compressors to blow up the one million and one balloons used to cover the ceiling of the auditorium for the prom. The traditional beautiful dance given each year as a good-bye gift for the seniors is a fun-filled festivity. Headed this year by Judy Zehnder, all members of the class co-operated in the effort.

Junior Class History

This year, Dave Hart was elected president of the junior class to get the many class activities underway. Joe Chowaniec served as vice-president, June Block as secretary, and Barbara Schluckebier as treasurer. The student council representatives included: Marie Heine, Richard J. Block, Rhea Fischer, Ken Baker, and Sara La Riviere.

From the freshman year to the junior year, the class of '63 proved to be an active and co-operative group. They started their first year in high school by sponsoring a dance.

During the sophomore year activities included a work day, a bake sale, and a dance.

The members of the class worked especially hard during their junior year to raise funds for the annual Junior-Senior Prom. They sponsored a dance in the early fall of the year, followed by a successful spaghetti dinner, and the Krazy Karnival, an annual junior class event.

Junior varsity cheerleaders relax during half time of a basketball game. Vote for Gary--and cheers for the other candidates for Student Body President were given by this wild group at the assembly. Tall Bert Bleke eyes the basket and poses for the camera. The honor of crowning the queen, Kathy Uebler, was given to Walter Bleke as Chris Schomaker, Dick Galsterer, Mimi Janson, Jerry Daenzer look on.

UNDERCLASSMEN

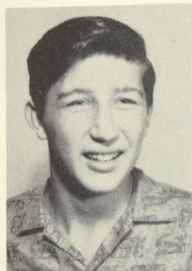

Don't be fooled! It is not only the underclassmen who are anxious to board the busses for home. In fact, if the underclassmen don't watch it they get trampled by the senior students. In the background Louie Wiess, bus driver, walks with care.

Sophomore Class History

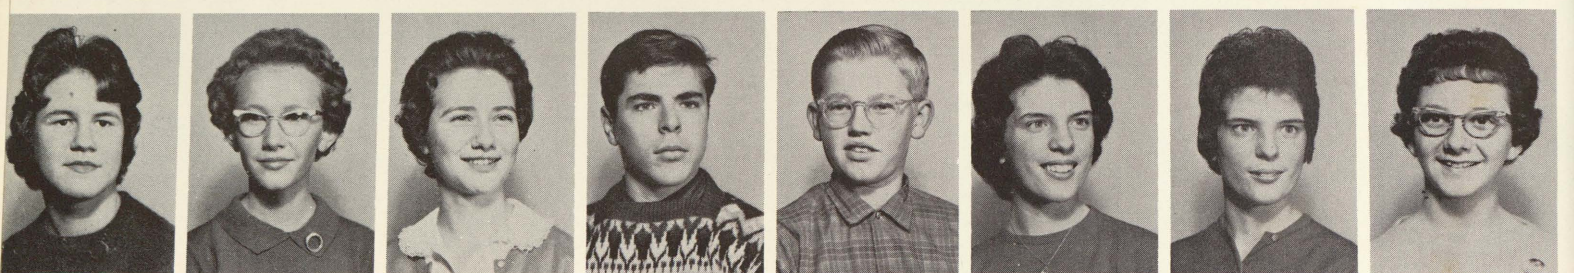

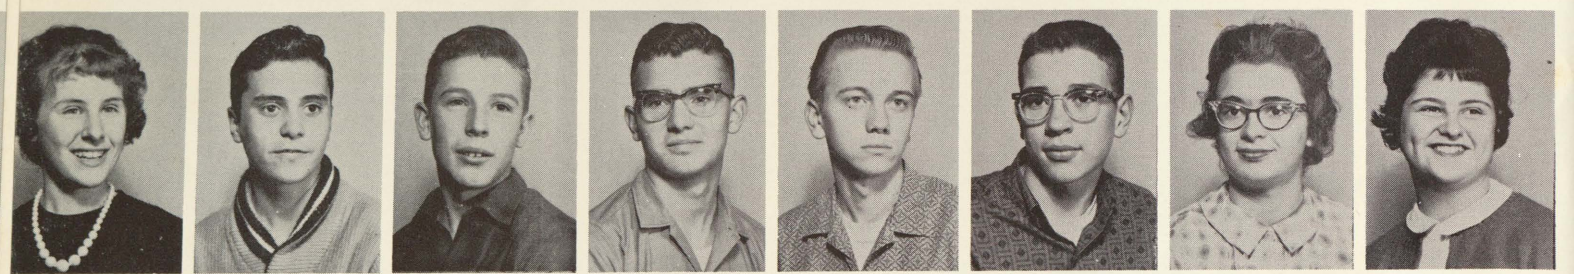

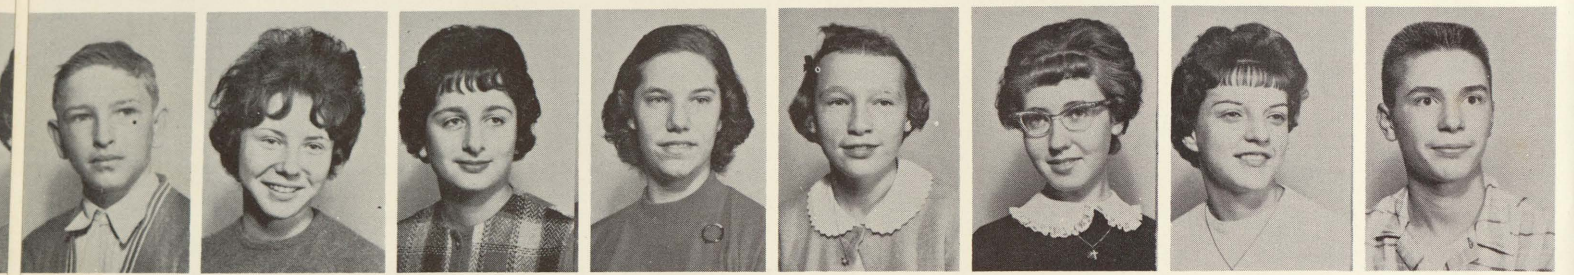

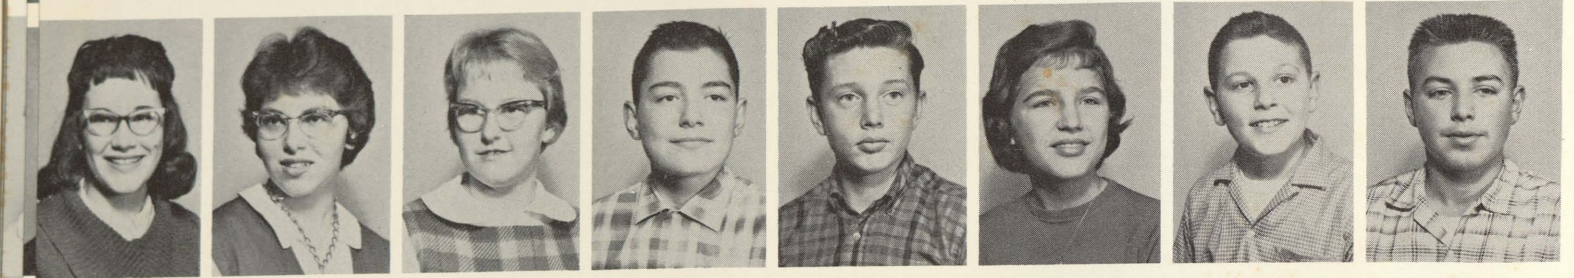

The sophomore class enrollment was 94. Class officers elected were: Ken Knoll, president; Tom Hildner, vice-president; Joyce Brechtelsbauer, secretary; and Diane Loesel, treasurer. Student Council members included: Delton Kaul, Sharon Leidel, Dennis Laux, Tom Worley, and Gary Zucker. A bake sale and a school dance were sponsored by the sophomores. They also participated in the Flanagan Aptitude Classification Test.

experiment in lab. Thinking that he is not included in the picture "Varsity Vite" grins happily. Impatiently waiting for noon hour to come, Larry Palmrueter and James Maurer resort to chewing on pencils. A group of Freshman girls appear to be deeply interested as a demonstration is being presented in Home Ec. Class. Sophomores Diane Schluckebier and Mary Block take notes on a lecture in English class.

History Of The Freshman Class

The freshman class of '62, as other classes before them, sponsored no all-school activities, but concentrated on adjusting themselves to the high school.

Watch that jump - Coach Kaczynski keeps score at the Cass City Track meet. Up the lazy river for the lazy teachers on the rafts. Surrounded by balloons is Mr. Stinchcombe, balloons were put in his office by some of the Juniors. Richard Block and Joe Chowaniec with the help of Ken Baker put up the wire for the prom. Krazy Karnival King and Queen, Ken Baker and Kathy Krauseneck. Substitutes for absent teachers are Mrs. Meyer, Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Wallen. Students try for speech contest given by American Legion, Sara won. At the Homecoming are Mr. Nolan and Lanny Nuechterlein.

ATHLETICS

Parents take a bow along with the team members at the half-time during the Bad Axe game. Parents night is a regular yearly event. Parents and sons are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Veitengruber and son Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Block and son Dick, Mrs. Harry List and son Larry, Eldon Geyer, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Baker and son Ken, Mrs. Walter Bleke and son Bert, Mr. Walter Bleke, Dick Galsterer, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrison.

Coaches

Coaches above are Harry Kaczynski and Richard Haffner.

Rough scrambles occurred in every football game but those pictured are during the Seminary, top, and Sandusky games.

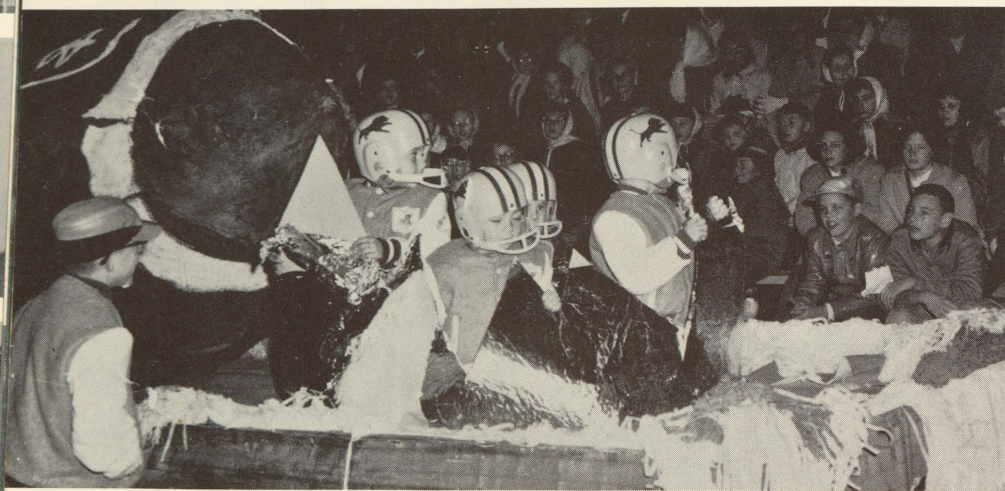

The Eagles opened the season with a 13-12 victory over Seminary, followed by six losses and a tie.

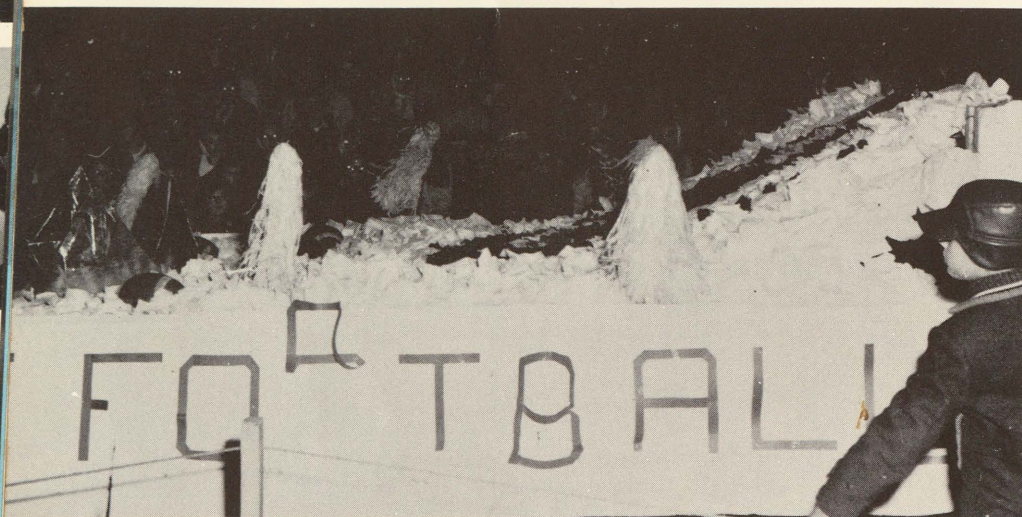

Sports coaches are William Nolan, basketball; Wayne Seiffert, football; Harold Kaczynski, football, track; Richard Haffner, football, basketball; Marco Marcet, basketball, baseball; Alois Schmitzer, golf.

The honors for the best float in the '62 Homecoming parade went to the junior class, with the theme "Swoop 'Em, Eagles." The Homecoming activities took place during and after a game with Sandusky Redskins. A trophy was awarded for the best idea and construction and is now located in the school trophy showcase.

The senior class took the second place honors with a float displaying the Eagle team as the "Kings of Football." Eaglets or miniature football players portrayed the elder Eagles as uniformed boys were shown surrounded by a king-crown.

The sophomore class presented a float with a theme similar to that of the seniors, but displayed a king on a playing card in order to represent the superiority of the Eagle team. A freshman float was built, but due to strong winds, was not able to reach the parade route intact.

Homecoming

A selected committee of faculty members, football players, and student council members chose Kathleen Uebler as the 1961-1962 Homecoming Queen of Frankenmuth High School. Miriam Janson and Christine Schomaker became members of her court.

The Homecoming ceremonies took place during the football game on October 20 against the Sandusky Redskins. Floats, introduced in 1960, were again paraded during half time and a trophy was presented to the junior class for the winning float.

Kathy, the fifth queen, is the successor to a title originated in 1957, which has been held by Cheryl Geyer, 1960-1961, Carla McConnell, 1959-1960, Connie Fischer, 1958-1959, and Karen Janson, 1957-1958.

"Kathy" received a bouquet of long-stemmed roses, a crown, and a football autographed by the team members.

Lovely Kathleen Uebler was crowned Homecoming Queen of the 1961-62 activities.

outfit has just been announced Beef Queen. Mrs. Walter Bartz advises students in speech class. "Sure wish I had a pair of sun glasses," says Steve Grainger as he squints before the camera-man. Relaxing during school hours Pauline Frank, Bert Bleke, Gart Hegenaue" and Sheila Jordan seem to have no worries.

Parent-Teacher Association

Active throughout the entire school are members of the parent-teacher association. Run by a board composed of representatives of both groups, activities this year have included the annual rummage sale, card party and other money raising events.

Richard Ziehmer, superintendent, is explaining school accounting to several parents at a PTA meeting.

Teachers, parents, and students mingle in the pleasant atmosphere of one of the new elementary school rooms.

Band Boosters

An organization to promote music in both the high and elementary schools is the Band Boosters. The long range project is additional uniforms for the band.

Dances

The girls are enjoying a popular circle dance. This dance, the twist, and various line dances introduced this year have brought everyone onto the floor and have helped improve the attendance at the dances.

Charlotte Rivett and Ruth Hubinger, standing, speak to several onlookers at one of the after-game dances in the gymnasium.

Stag lines are lively while the band leaves for a break. In fact conversation and comment are as much a part of the fun as are the dance numbers.

Diane Loesel, Kathy Geyer, Lanny Nuechterlein, and Larry List have a last look at the decorations.

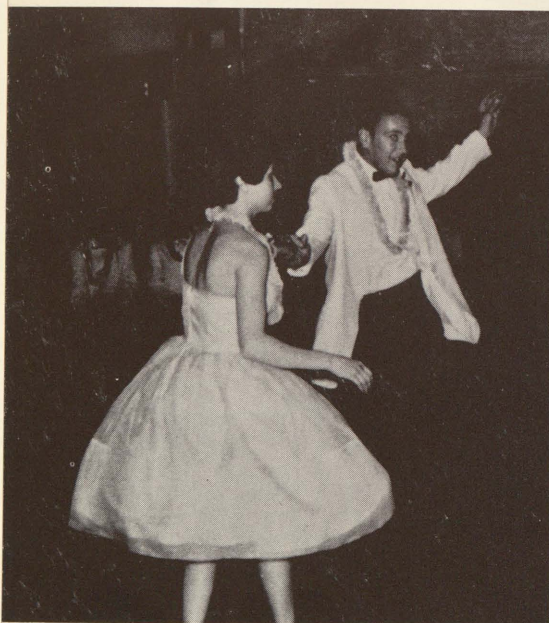

Junior-Senior Dinner-Dance

The important social event on the high school calendar is the Junior-Senior Dinner Dance which has been traditional since the first class graduated in 1957.

Occuring at the end of May the dinner is held, usually at one of the local hotels and is followed by a dance at the school. Traditionally the dance is given by the members of the junior class with the upperclassmen as their guests.

"Blue Hawaii" was the theme selected by the juniors after careful consideration of all suggestions made by class members. The decorations for both the dinner and dance carried the idea to the fullest extent.

The affair was well attended, the music scintillating, and the guests receptive to an evening of enjoyment.

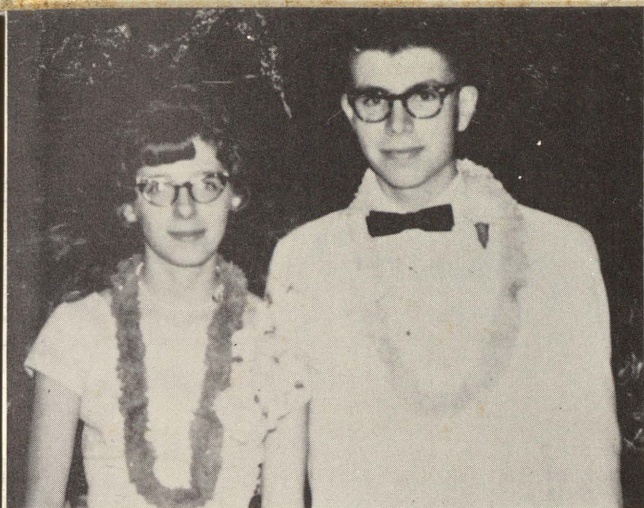

Mimi Janson and Fred Galasterer enjoy the beat of rock 'n roll. Others like the slow and dreamy numbers.

Members of the junior class check their decorations after a hard day's work. But all is well, all is beautiful and next year they will be the guests.

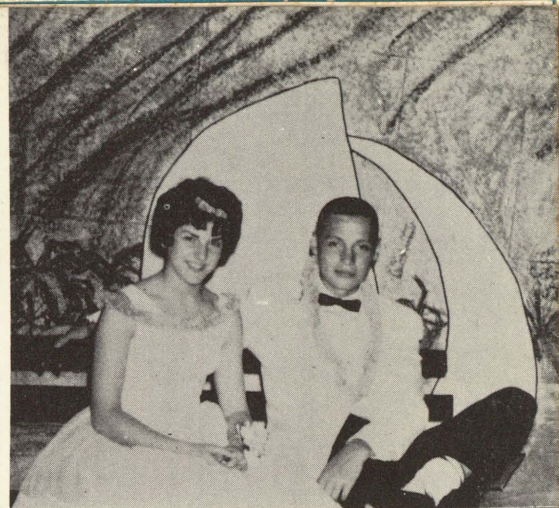

Ronnie Horton and Shirley Stern decide to sit this one out.

Jerry Zuercher and his date pause and pose for a picture. Not for long though as the music is good.

Chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schmok, enjoy watching the students have a good time.

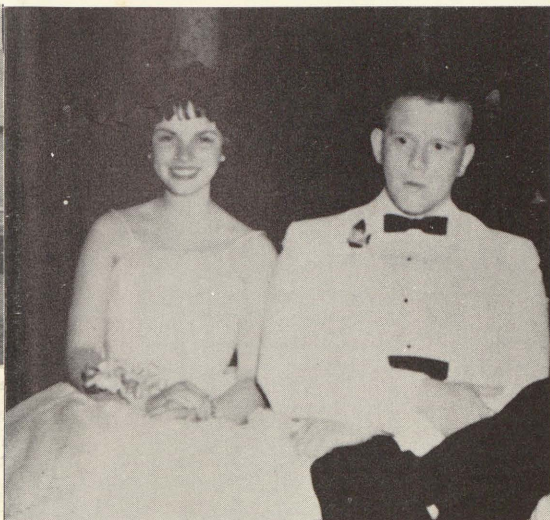

Mary Lou Loesel and Don Dean rest and watch their classmates dance.

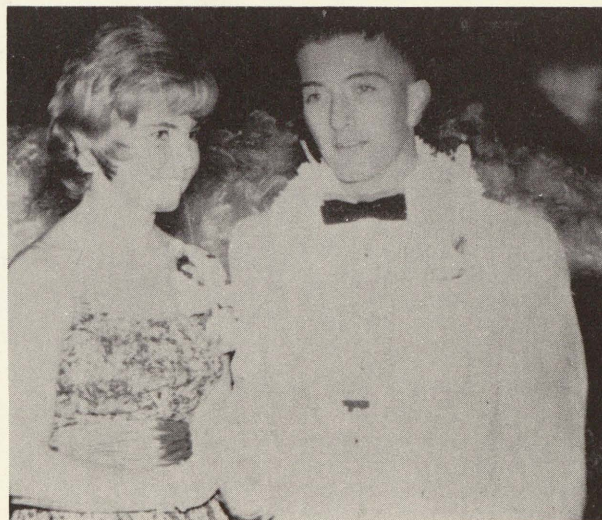

Enjoying the dance are Wayne Landskroener, Dorothy LaMountain, Bob Karst, and Marie Heine. They are interested from the sidelines.

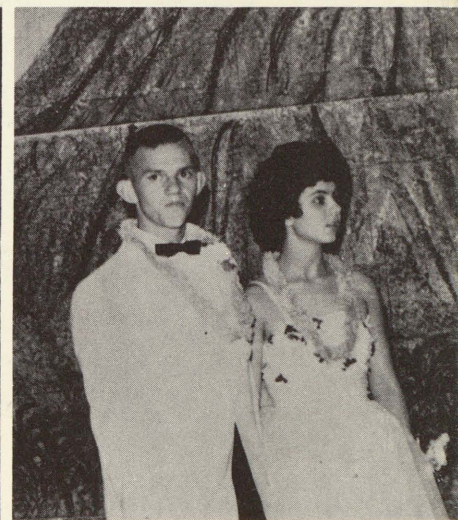

"No dance is complete without lots of refreshments," agree the students above.

Virginia Weber and her date relax as they watch a new dance.

Cheryl Geyer, convinces Corky Leslie to try a social.

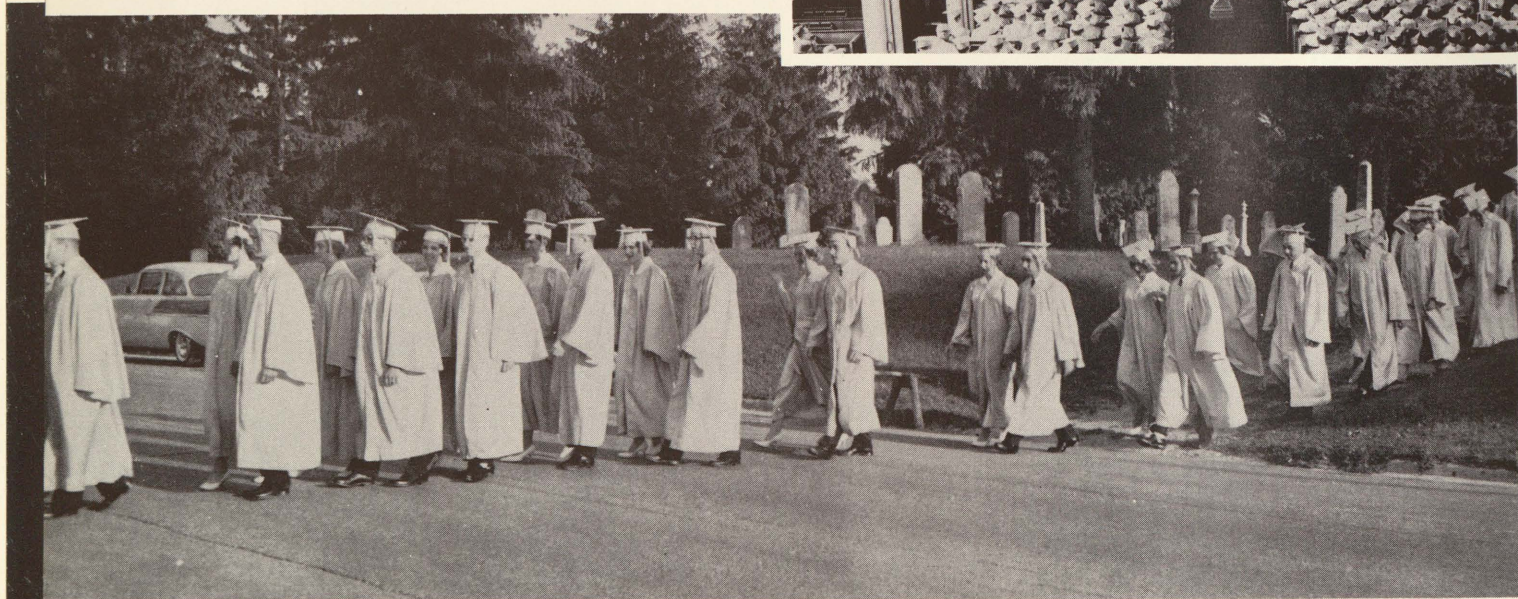

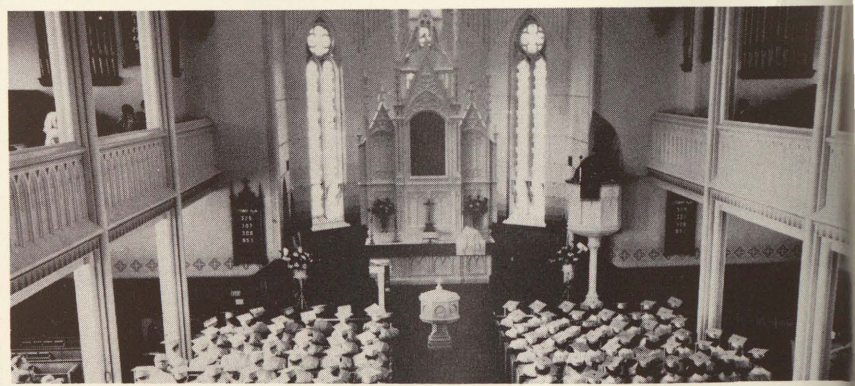

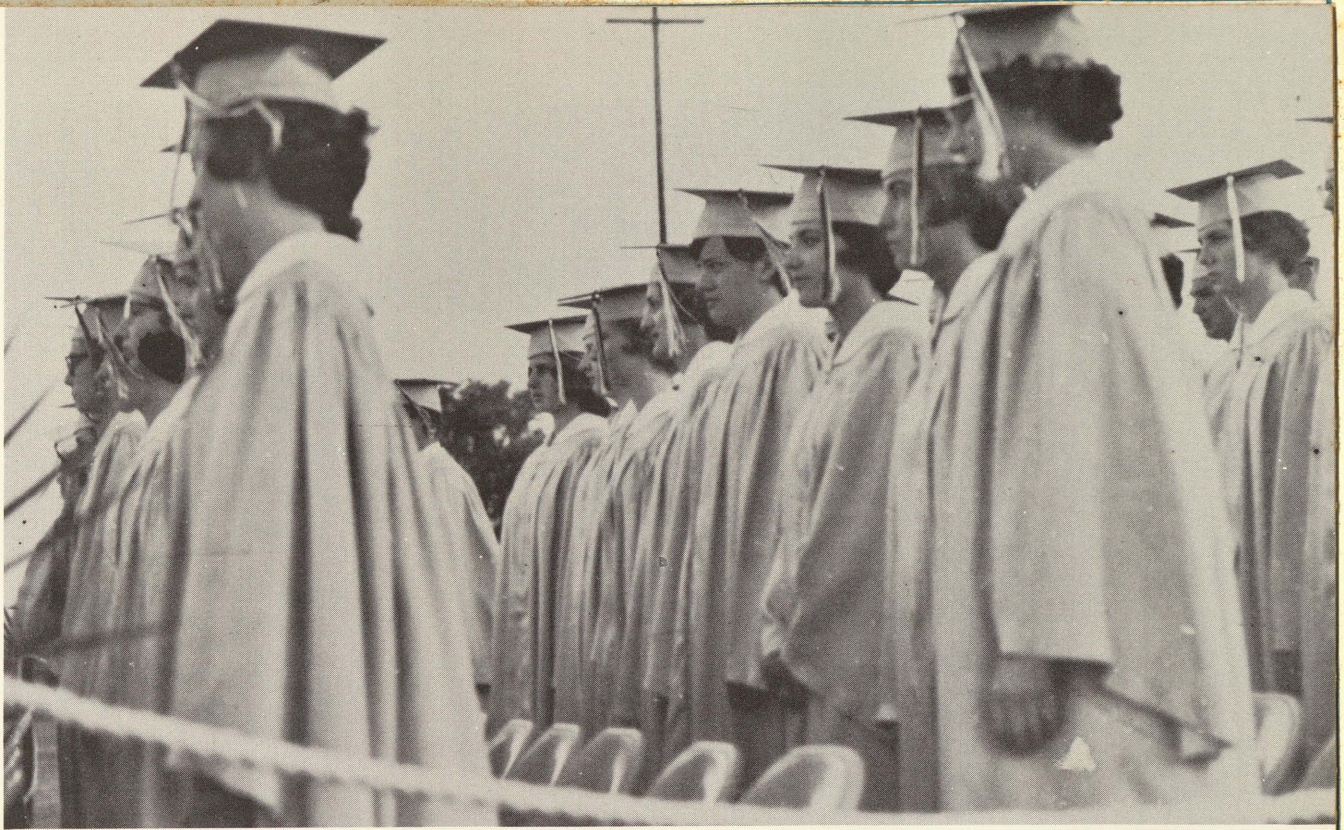

Gary Rupprecht and Naida Krafft wait for the next slow series.

Baccalaureate And Commencement

The baccalaureate services for the class of '62 were held on June 3, 1962 in St. Lorenz Church of Frankenmuth. The speaker of the service was Rev. Phillip Jantz.

RIGHT: The members of the class of '62 listen to an inspiring speech. BOTTOM: The class is shown as they file toward the church.

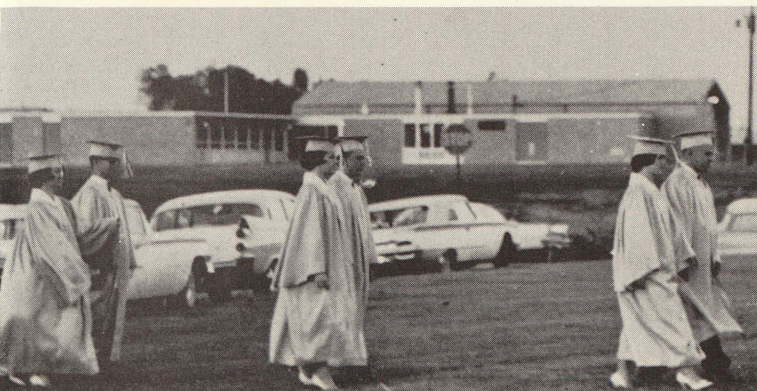

Together for the last time as a class, the seniors await the opening of the commencement exercises.

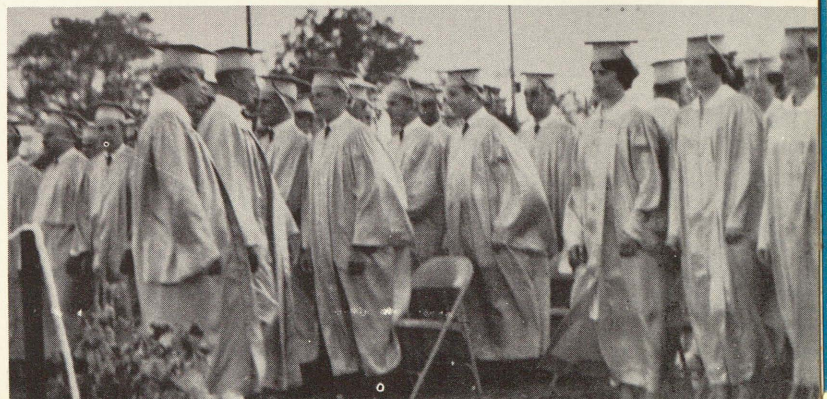

ABOVE: Salutatorian Sally Pagels expressed in her speech the feelings of the members of the senior class as they were about to leave Frankenmuth High.

Commencement exercises were held on the sixth of June of 1962. Beautiful weather permitted the ceremonies to be held on the football field as they were the two previous years.

Pictured below are graduates beginning the processional.

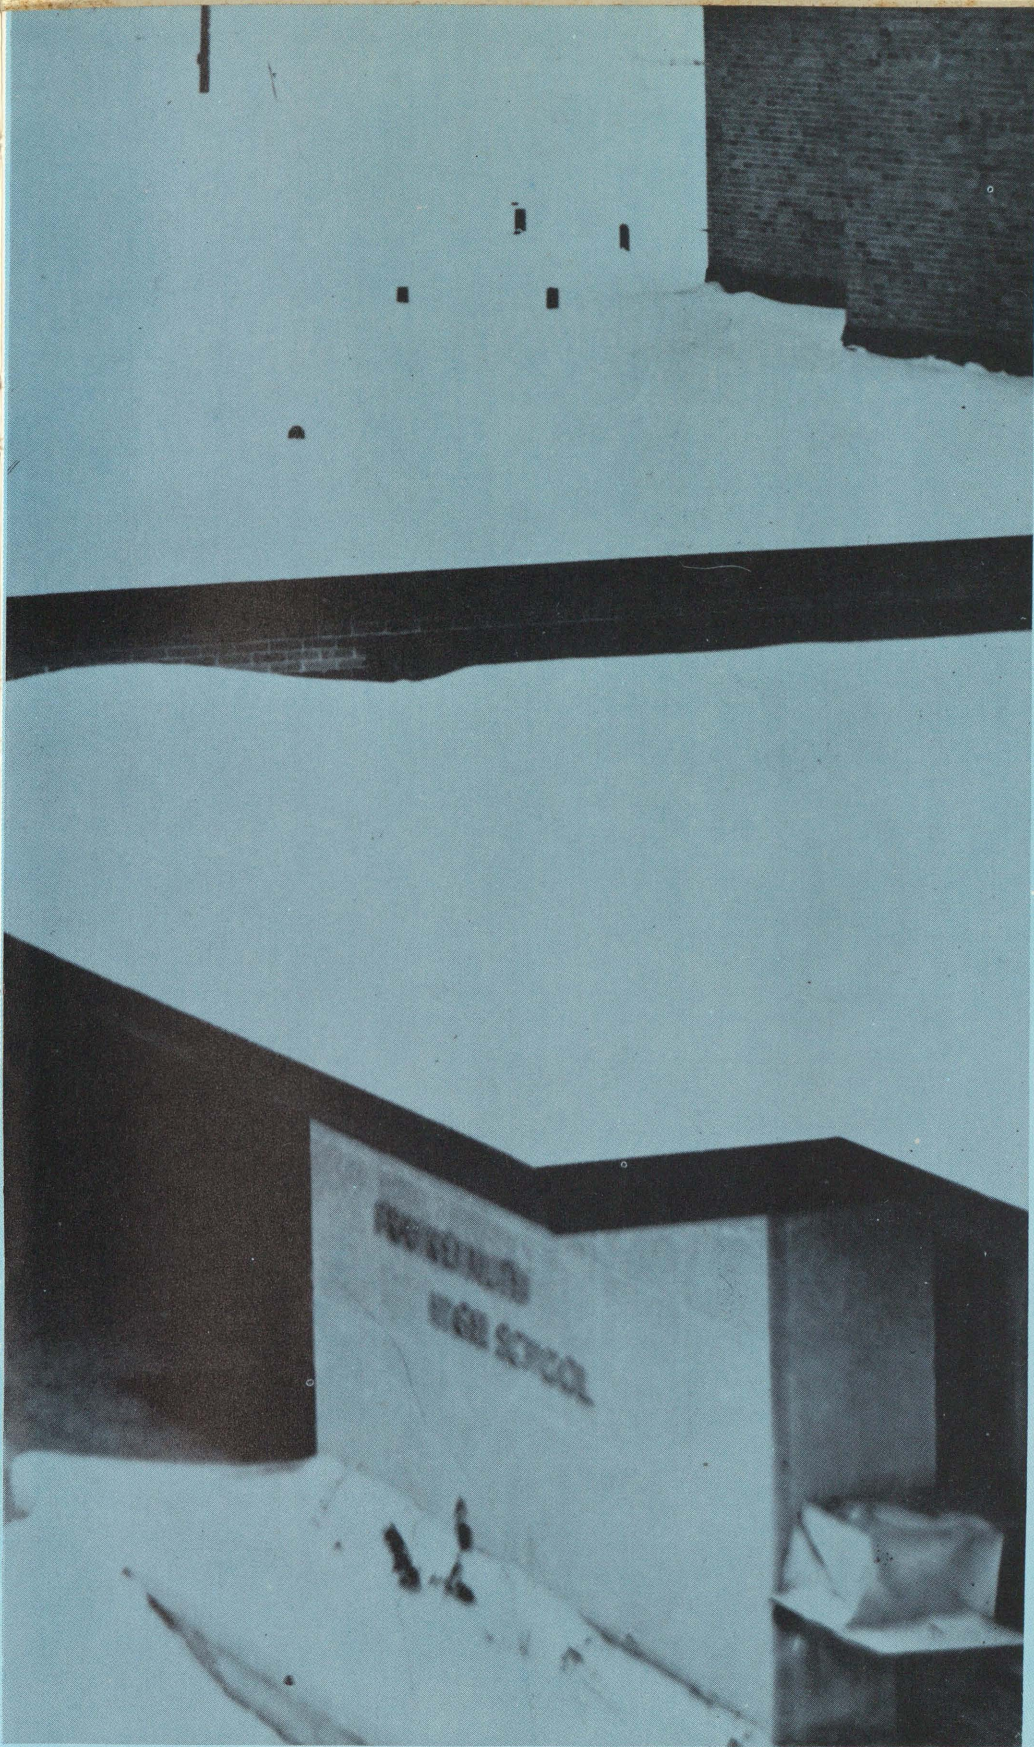

The students take their places after the processional.

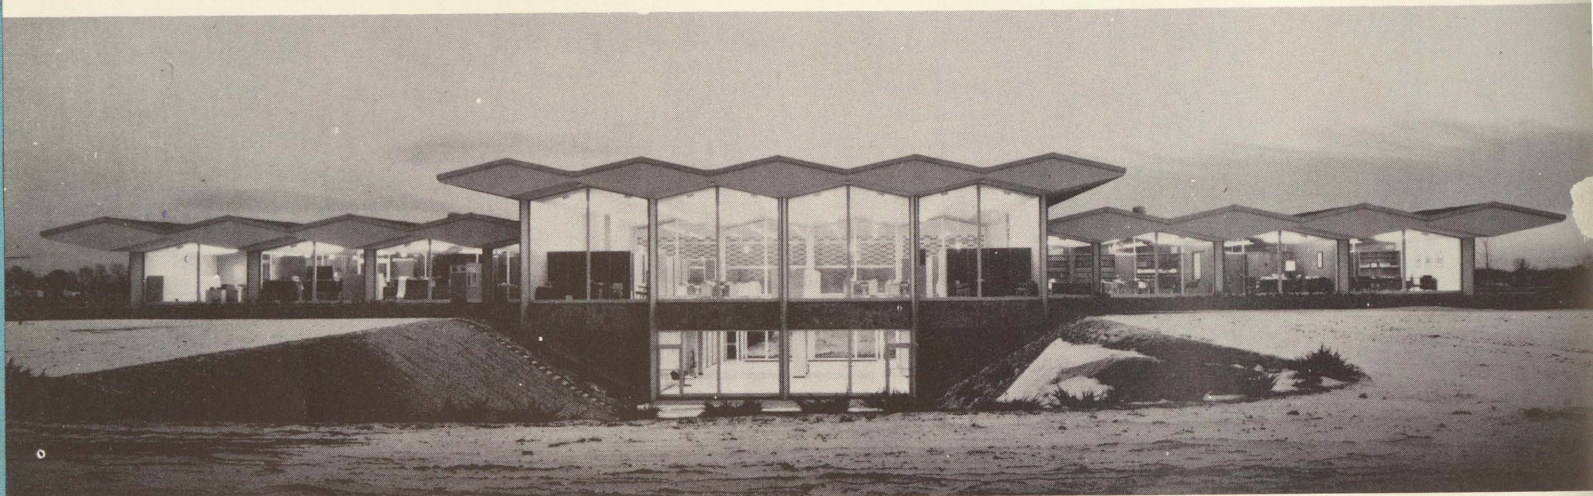

ADVERTISEMENTS

In a quiet way as indicated by the scene above, the members of the Eyrie staff wish to thank each and every advertiser for their continued support of the school and the activities. Without the understanding help of the following concerns this wonderful book of memories could not be possible. We thank you.

- Ruth -

We've gone through a lot during these four short years of high school. You know Ruth, you're a real sweetheart and you deserve all the luck in the world. You're a real personality and you'll go far. I hope you don't forget me. Love (Can't borrow 30¢ Ruth?) HA HA

- Ruth -

Well, kid, we've got ½ year to go - just think! We've really had a blast there 3½ short years, I just hope that when it's all over that we continue to have the fun wherever we go. Good luck to you, old "RAH" in whatever you go into I'm sure you will be a smashing success with that big happy smile of yours. God bless you!

"Ruth - 'Hubby'" for a real sweet girl. What happy me out about me feeling in our department well, it'll never forget that. Best of luck in the future and that I wish you happiness

Hi ya Ruth

Boy your neat

It sure has been a pleasure for you to know me hasn't it. (whoops wrong way)

I sure do enjoy talking and discuss our sweet little problems.

I hope where ever you go or what ever you do you will have better luck than I do. Its what you that counts but not what you say. Choose your own path and stay with it. please remember where ever you go your little bit of humor and kindness will go a long way. I have found this to be true with me.

Ruth -
Chase to a swell kid and one that deserves the best of everything that comes his way. Best of luck that deserves the good work and Keep up the good work and
get all your needs.
"Keep up the good work and
get all your needs."
"Keep up the good work and
get all your needs."

Its a friend forever
"me" old "Rag"

Set the good lord guide you and your wishes
come true.

I can't tell you in words how much your friendship means to me. This past summer has really been something and I wouldn't have missed it for any money. I never had so much fun. Remember that afternoon you called me up to go horseback riding — am I ever glad I went, but that was just the beginning. With your help I met Don, and that really started something — didn't it? — from then on, we shared our troubles. You and Charlotte would always be patching up some argument between Don and I.

Remember all the fun we had at the Drive-in, and at Zuber's sisters wedding? Having friends like you, Zuber, Riv, and Shmoagil has really been an experience, and don't forget the times we had on the lake in back of your house. (Maybe you'd like to forget them though). But, you must admit we had a blast!

I'd like to say good luck to you always Ruthie, because if anyone deserves it, you do. I sincerely hope your future is as bright and successful as you hope it to be. Have lots of fun in college, I know you'll make an extra good librarian, and you won't have any trouble making new friends, but, don't forget your old ones, or good old F.H.S. either. (I don't know what so good about it though)

Always keep your genuine personality and sincerity, with them you'll go far. Whenever you need a helping hand, think of me. I'll always be around and I know that there will be more good times to come.

God Bless You —

Mary (small)

Ruthie —

To a real sweet girl in the senior class. Remember the fun we had this summer, both during the games and afterwards! Best of luck in the future.

Ruthie —
Always stay as you are and don't have any trouble. I've been a pleasure to be one of your classmates.

Ruthie —
We start on this page and go to the next if I run out of room. I've had a lot of fun together and I never forget you. I hope you won't forget about me. I hope our friendship will continue through the years (not days).

Ruthie - Remember all the fun we had this summer.
 How could we ever forget! Even though you had a few problems (Blondy's table), we still had a wonderful time. I was still in a class of the senior girls of the class. But your friendliness and saving and don't ever lose your friendliness
 to everyone you know.
 Best of luck

Ruthie -
 We were a team and a lot of fun together during our years at F.H.S. We had a lot of parties together and had a lot of fun. I was always there a good time and very kind-hearted. I hope you stay that way and don't ever lose your sense of humor.
 Be good, I love you. "Stavely" "63"

Ruthie:
 I hardly know where to begin with this, but here goes. You are one of my best friends throughout my school years. I hope we are friends the rest of our lives and that we increase our friendship, even after graduation. We shared fun and trouble, but always end up happier and closer.
 Let's keep it that way!
